

arm_cosine_distance_f64

graph LR; A[arm_cosine_distance_f64] --> B[arm_dot_prod_f64];

A diagram showing a dependency between two functions. On the left, a white rectangular box with a dark border contains the text 'arm_cosine_distance_f64'. A blue arrow points from the right side of this box to the left side of a gray rectangular box with a dark border on the right, which contains the text 'arm_dot_prod_f64'.
